THURSDAY MORNING NOV 19, 1863

Who tells the Truth?

We observe that all the bogus Democratic Conventions, held of late throughout the State, put something into their fanciful resolutions about "attacks by the North upon the Constitutional rights of the South" Of course they never specify any act of that sort simply because they cannot We should be glad, however, to have them explain the inconsistency of the remarks made by A H Stephens Vice President of the rebel organization, in his speech to the Georgia State Convention He said

"What right has the North assailed? What justice has been denied? And what claim, founded on justice and right has been withheld? Can you to day name one single act of wrong, deliberately and purposely done by the Government at Washington, of which the South has a right to complain? I challenge the answer"

No one did answer, and no one could, but yet we have paltry treasonable politicians, scattered here and there through the State, who pretend to know more about the wrongs of the South than its own leaders do—lying guides of foolish men who will not think for themselves

THE PUGET SOUND MAIL —The annoyances which the denizens of Washington Territory have suffered in the matter of mail facilities for the past year or two, have been so great and frequent, that they are justified in grumbling to their hearts' content But we ask the privilege of correcting some little misapprehensions which unjustly affix the blame on innocent parties Occasionally the mail stage arrives at Olympia without the late dates from Portland which our subscribers have a right to expect, and their absence is explained by the assertion that "the Portland steamer failed to connect" The statement is true per se, but the inference is very often far from it We learn at the Post Office that our mail steamer for Monticello receives the mail and leaves here with commendable punctuality, and arrives at the end of her mail route considerably within her schedule time, thus putting it entirely within the power of the stage company to fulfill their contract if convenient. The captain of the steamer has even sent the mail forward and overtaken the mail rider who had left Monticello without it, and he would have obliged the Puget Sound public by sending it forward again, had not the Postmaster at Monticello denied him the right The mail rider has left Monticello without waiting for the mail after hearing the mail steamer's whistle By some hocus pocus arrangements, the schedule time on the route has been changed, to the private aggrandizement of the few who secretly procured it, and to a like or greater extent injurious to the public whose interests are not consulted, taking a little from the time allotted to the steamer and adding to that of the "horse back mail stage," by which the steamer is required to leave Monticello for this city at one o'clock in the afternoon, and bring the mail, while the mail rider has until evening of the same day to arrive at Monticello with it By this process, last Friday's mail from Olympia arrived here on Tuesday evening, and Monday's mail may be expected here to night We are assured that the fault is not chargeable to the boats at this end of the route, and if any little speculation is on foot to impair the steamer contract and secure a monopoly of the contract elsewhere, it will be necessary to change the tactics, and at least deal more justly with the credit of innocent parties

THE IDAHO MURDERERS —We are indebted to B G Whitehouse, Esq, cashier of the C O Mail Stage Company, in this city, for the use of the following letter received by him yesterday

SHASTA Nov 12th, 1863

MR WHITEHOUSE Dear Sir — Beachey holds the prisoners, the Supreme Court so decided yesterday He will leave by steamer of the 17th I do not know how much money has been recovered, some reports have it $20,000, others not so much Beachey has had a great deal of trouble with lawyers

Respectfully yours,
W H RHODEHAMEL

The foregoing intelligence will give great satisfaction to the people in the upper country, where we understand there is a strong and growing disposition to make an example of these murderers, and thus protect future operations in the mining region by deterring scoundrels from a gratification of their blood thirsty propensities Rumors of justice to be summarily administered upon their arrival there, have reached us from the vicinity of Lewiston, but we presume that the law will be deemed sufficiently potent by the more reflecting, and will be allowed to take its course.

POSTAL AGENT —Since Mr Hill, late Deputy Collector at San Francisco, declined the office of Postal Agent for the Pacific Coast it is reported that it was tendered to E W Corbett, but we observe by an item in the Union, that as he has been appointed Assistant Secretary of State in California, he will probably also decline the Agency So the office still goes begging as it is very likely to continue to do, until its salary is made somewhat more equivalent to the arduous services which the agent is expected to perform

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to November 12.

NEW YORK, Nov 12 —Persons high in authority in Canada have officially notified the Government that there is reason for belief that a plan had been set on foot by citizens hostile to the United States who have found a refuge in Canada, to leave Buffalo They propose to take possession of some steamboats on the lake proceed to Johnson's Island where there are 3000 rebel prisoners [illegible] the Prisoners set free [illegible] prisoners [illegible] Buffalo [illegible] will [illegible] power to suppress any hostile attempts from Canada but as other towns and cities on the lakes are exposed it is deemed necessary to take the means to communicate this information to you in order that such precautions may be taken as the circumstances of the case will permit

CINCINNATI Nov 12 —Considerable excitement prevails in the northern part of the State in consequence of the anticipated attack from Johnson's Island Active and energetic steps have been taken by the Government in the matter

NEW YORK Nov 12 — Money a little easier but still in brisk demand Sterling 161½ Gold 147½

A Washington correspondent says A private note from the front states that it is believed that the rebels are in considerable force south of Culpepper and this side of the Rapidan Our army cannot advance rapidly owing to the want of a railroad bridge across the Rappahannock Meade's headquarters are now a mile and a half north east of Brandy Station

A Washington special says A contraband from Gordonsville, says the rebels were making arrangements to go into winter quarters but a panic existed created by stories of Meade advancing in force

FALLING SPRINGS Va Nov 7 —Brig Gen Kelly attacked Jenkins near Mill Point and drove him from his position The loss was trifling on both sides Yesterday Jenkins was reinforced and assumed a strong position, similar to that of South Mountain Md but stronger from natural advantages We turned the enemy's left with infantry and when he became disturbed made an attack in front with four regiments of dismounted cavalry Our victory was decisive The enemy's retreat was a total rout We pursued the enemy until dark taking many prisoners Our loss was about 100 officers and men (Signed)

AVERHILL
Brigadier General

WASHINGTON, Nov 12 —A dispatch from Gen Kelly says late information from Lewisburg says that Averhill's victory was more decisive than was at first reported

NEW YORK, Oct 12 —The transport Daniel Webster, from New Orleans Oct 29th brings news of the departure from New Orleans under Major Gen Banks, in person of an expedition which for some weeks had been fitting out Sixteen steamers were included in the expedition also several schooners and tugs The troops were provided with four days cooked rations and 40 rounds of ammunition

Memphis papers have the following In the fight between the rebel and Federal cavalry on the 9th, the rebels were repulsed with a loss of 50 killed and wounded Our loss is not stated The enemy had over 4,000 men engaged They acknowledge a loss of over 300 killed and wounded Averhill took 100 prisoners, one stand of colors and three pieces of artillery, and a considerable number of small arms camp equipage and a number of mules and wagons

KNOXVILLE, Nov 11 —In the recent affair at Rogersville Hawkins county north east of Knoxville Burnside's forces were overwhelmed by superior numbers Burnside has taken over 1 500 prisoners since he came into Tennessee independent of the garrison at Cumberland Gap, putting us far ahead of the rebels

From the Sacramento Union we have the following additional news

WASHINGTON Nov 9 —The streets are full of rumors as to what Meade intends to do in this campaign There seems to be no reason to doubt however his earnest movement be having an important object to attain, which will in connection with other movements of the Union forces, go far toward showing that the rebellion is played out and so reduce its territorial limits as to deprive it of all pretense to importance or respect. A short time now will fully develope the plans of the grand campaign that has just been inaugurated

NEW YORK, Nov 10 —The Tribune's Washington special dispatch says No considerable opposition was offered to the march of the Army of the Potomac yesterday, the rebels having rapidly fallen back and placed the Rapidan between them and our advancing columns Buford's cavalry encountered the rebel cavalry at Waterloo bridge on Sunday morning (8th), and after a short fight drove them across the river Having orders to proceed in another direction, the pursuit was not followed up Buford's cavalry occupied Culpepper on Sunday night. The main body of the army is in the vicinity of Brandy Station to day Our advance has pushed on, and is at the Rapidan The enemy is on the south side in his old intrenchments Our forces are rapidly moving to the different fords of the Rapidan It is reported that Kilpatrick's cavalry has taken possession of the heights back of Fredericksburg but it is not positively confirmed It is furthermore stated that Lee is not with the forces in front of Meade, but that Ewell or A P Hill is in command General Lee is reported to have gone to Chattanooga

The prisoners taken make the usual brags of how Meade will soon be whipped, and give out mysterious hints as to his being drawn into a trap They also confirm the reported destitution of their army The North Carolina troops taken declare that they will not take up arms again

Another bread riot in Richmond is reported The papers, however make no mention of it The real cause of the scarcity of food is the worthlessness of the currency Farmers have grain and cattle to sell, but not to give away for paper rags

The Herald has the following, dated Brandy Station, November 9th The Third Army Corps after the brilliant action of Saturday at Kelly's Ford, encamped on the south side resting till daylight yesterday (8th) when they took the road in pursuit of the rebels followed by the First and Second Corps About noon they came upon a strong force of cavalry and light artillery posted in line on a hill near the railroad two miles east of this station The Third Division under General Carr was in advance, and Keffer's brigade, supported by the other two brigades of this division, immediately charged upon and soon drove the rebels from their position This division with its artillery, followed them, inflicting severe punishment, and they retreated up the railroad to a point two miles beyond Brandy Station The fighting continued till after dark The casualties on our side will not exceed seven or eight wounded. While this was going on, the others corps were scouring the country up the river and toward Stevensburg, but found only occasional stragglers from the retreating army, which had evidently left its prepared Winter quarters only a few hours before We find the whole country gone over so far filled with camps, many of them with commodious log huts Prisoners and rebel surgeons left in charge of the wounded at Kelly's Ford agree in their statements that they were in full expectation of wintering here Lee's headquarters were a mile north of Brandy Station Our soldiers are anxious to push on to a general engagement

General Gregg's cavalry division had a smart skirmish with the enemy, but the particulars are not known It was very disastrous to the rebels There has been this evening a sufficient fall of snow to whiten the ground

A special dispatch to the World says It is hinted that a considerable Union force has started or is about to start up the Peninsula toward Richmond It is also stated that the artillery roads constructed under the orders of McClellan are in superb condition, and will greatly facilitate the movement against the enemy

Our troops command all the roads approaching Fredericksburg from the northwest

The Times dispatch dated November 9th says Officers from the front this evening say that Culpepper is occupied by our troops Our cavalry had made a reconnoissance as far as Union without the rebels in any considerable force The impression among military men is that Lee's entire force will retreat to Richmond and will make no effort to check our advance this side of the fortifications of that city

The very latest dispatch to night from the front says heavy cavalry skirmishing has been going on all the afternoon southwest of Culpepper toward Madison Court House The only rebel force this side of the Rapidan is Stuart's cavalry covering the rebel retreat

Major General Butler and staff arrived at Fortress Monroe November 10th

A special dispatch to the World says Secretary Seward in answer to a request for permission to place men in the service of the Juarez Government said permission could not be given Any one engaging in it would be prosecuted

The Washington correspondent of the Post under date of November 9th, says There was a little fighting on the south bank of the Rappahannock, but it was [illegible] importance It is not improbable that [illegible] battle may be fought within a day or two All [illegible] the rebels If they will stand [illegible] pretty certain to occur General Meade [illegible] bent on a decisive [illegible] He was urged to it by the President [illegible] Stanton and Halleck and how [illegible] under the circumstances The army is in excellent trim and in numbers [illegible] to the enemy by at least [illegible] twenty There is no reason [illegible] for believing that [illegible] compelled to fall back still further [illegible] Virginia

[illegible] Tribune says [illegible] must decide [illegible] days will [illegible] battle [illegible]

The Augusta Ga Constitutionalist says the [illegible] reached [illegible] fifteen miles from Knoxville

The Charleston Mercury of November 2d says [illegible] of Lookout Mountain by a flank movement The flanking force is in the vicinity of Sand Mountain [illegible] probably nearly the same route that Rosecrans took when Bragg fell back

A telegram dated Selma Ala Oct 29th says [illegible] vicinity of Tuscal[illegible] [illegible] They are said to have come from Tupelo (Miss) by the route Bragg's army came last summer

WASHINGTON, November 10 —All quiet on the Rappahannock to day

The Government is redeeming [illegible] at an average $2 000 000 per day of the maturing certificates of indebtedness

Messengers who left the Army at [illegible] at ten o'clock this morning bring the following Buford yesterday (9th) reached [illegible] two miles north of Culpepper driving the rebel cavalry and infantry before him Lee's headquarters on Saturday night November 7th were at Brandy Station This refutes the belief current that he had gone South Our army reconnoitered all day yesterday but Lee declined to accept the offer of an engagement Kilpatrick occupied Pony Mountain yesterday afternoon Last night he discovered camp fires north of the Rapidan between Raccoon Ford and Rapidan Station No rebels were discovered in or around Culpepper This leads to the inference that Lee has declined to fight an open fight and withdrawn his forces except a rear guard to his former position All evidence tends to prove that Meade has regained General Lee by leading him to believe it was his intention to move down the neck opposite Fredericksburg thus inducing Lee to weaken his front to strengthen that point

A gentleman who arrived to night says Our line of battle is across the Orange and Alexandria Railroad to a point where it is supposed Lee has his full force in front

CAIRO Nov 10 —Another guerrilla party came in last night, between Mayfield and Paducah (Ky), creating considerable excitement at the latter place It is said they have obtained about 500 conscripts since they first came into that part of Kentucky

The only rebel forces now in Arkansas are Marmaduke's cavalry and about 2 500 men in the mountains west of Fort Smith

Little Rock advices are to October 31st At a Union mass meeting held on that evening the strongest kind of Union resolutions were adopted and the most influential men of Western Arkansas were present Great enthusiasm prevailed

Marmaduke Price & Co are believed to have skedaddled to Texas

Jeff Davis has sent a large number of blank commissions to Arkansas and Missouri for such persons as will engage to raise guerrilla companies

MEMPHIS, Nov 6 —Collierville Tennessee dispatches of November 5th say that Colonel Hatch had just returned after driving the enemy under Chalmers across the Tallahatchie The rebels were eight regiments strong with six pieces of artillery After the repulse at Collierville, on November 3d the retreat became a rout The rebels admit a loss of two hundred killed and wounded We buried twenty three at this place and six at Coldwater We have fifty prisoners including seven commissioned officers, among whom is General George of Mississippi The discomfiture was complete Their whole expedition was a failure

European Intelligence

The mission of Marshal Niel to St Petersburg, was supposed to be a last attempt on the part of Napoleon to persuade the Czar to grant the Poles concessions, which the diplomacy of Europe has hitherto failed to obtain It is however surmised that the French Emperor would not be displeased or greatly disappointed if the Poles maintained themselves in insurrection

KILLING AT BANNOCK —Mr Ireland informs us that Jaky Williams, Chief of the Bannock City Police, was killed in that city on Monday evening, Nov 9th, under the following circumstances A game of "draw" was going on in the City Bakery, and some person, whose name Mr Ireland could not learn was disturbing the game and Mr Williams happening to come into the room was requested to remove the troublesome customer, he attempted to do so but finally, after some pretty hard words had passed between them, concluded to let him remain The man then left the room of his own accord, but soon returned and asked Williams to take a drink, who complied, and while they were at the bar, the man stabbed Williams to the heart —Dalles Journal

Through a private letter received last night from Bannock, by one of our mercantile firms, we learn that the man who killed Williams was named Owens

PACIFIC RAILROAD MEETING —Mr Turley's address last evening at the Court House was excellent and exactly to the point We regret that there was not a more general attendance, as we are sure that all our citizens would have been as much instructed and gratified as those were who heard Mr Turley, and as a proof of their satisfaction unanimously expressed their thanks to him We should be very glad if he would consent to speak again in this city as we need to be aroused by every possible means to the full and just appreciation of the necessity for taking earnest hold of whatever plan is offered for the development of the natural resources of the State, so that by a wise system of internal improvement it may become strong, prosperous and wealthy

THE QUICKEST PASSAGE AROUND THE HORN The new steamer of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's line the Golden City, arrived at Panama October 24th, 51 days out from New York This we believe is the quickest passage around Cape Horn yet on record She will bring from Panama the passengers who left New York on the 3d instant

NAVAL ACADEMY — Among the list of those appointed to this institution we observe the name of F W Veazie of Washington Territory No appointment is announced from Oregon or Idaho

BOARD OF DELEGATES —A special meeting of the Board of Delegates will be held at 7 o'clock, this evening

SUDDEN DEATH —Mr J R Malone, who has a wife and two children residing in the vicinity of Eugene City died yesterday morning at the residence of Mr Isaac Springer on Second street Mr M was a resident of the Dalles in 1856-7 and had many friends among the old residents who kindly cared for him during his short illness He arrived here from Canyon City on Friday night last, but was so prostrated by illness and fatigue that he was immediately taken to bed where he died as above stated His effects are in the hands of Dr Steele who will correspond with his friends —Dalles Journal

CIRCUIT COURT —Yesterday was occupied in the trial of the Chinese females

To-day three more Chinese women are to be arraigned for keeping houses of ill fame

The following is the report of the Grand Jury, presented just before their discharge

The Grand Jury being ready to be discharged, would report that they have in the discharge of their duty found sixty one bills of indictment—the most of them for minor offences

They feel called upon to speak of one case particularly They have found a bill of indictment in one case of a rape upon a girl some ten years and seven months of age where the proof of consent on the part of the girl is not as clear as is required The whole details of the case are disgusting, showing intensified depravity on the part of the defendant and serve to demonstrate the necessity of placing the age of consent on the part of the female at a later period in life than it now is by law We hope our law makers will not fail to make the required change at the earliest practicable period

Our attention has been called to the subject of gambling and while we have been made aware of the history of indictments for this offence and the means to convict we have not believed we should fail in our duty under the law without making presentment of the practice of one establishment where gaming is public and connected with music and other attractions and where the boys of the town have been allowed to gamble away their earnings, or the gifts of their parents or friends The Grand Jury look upon this somewhat as a test of the public sentiment upon the subject

The principal portion of the indictments have been for Sunday selling of intoxicating liquors or keeping disorderly houses where they are kept for retail

The Grand Jury visited the Penitentiary of the State and find the institution in good order, and the inmates comfortably cared for and profitably employed. The officers in charge seem to have the interest of the men in charge and the interest of the State at heart, and have so systematized the labor of the Penitentiary as nearly or quite a self sustaining institution The Grand Jury were much pleased with the condition of things at that place There are twenty three prisoners in confinement, of whom eight are employed in the inside in making brick, cooking &c two are sick and thirteen are employed outside in such employment as from time to time can be obtained The saddle trees manufactured here are of good quality, and we believe will compare in quality and price with any brought from abroad.

The county jail is not as secure as it ought to be but is neat and well kept The Grand Jury hope the county will feel justified in soon providing some more secure place for the increased number of criminals that may be expected to infest our rapidly growing population

The city jail has time and again been condemned by former grand juries, and the present can only repeat what has already been said The officers in charge may not be to blame, and probably are as careful as can be expected with a building of such a character There ought however to be some place made for the persons should not be [illegible] punished by chilling them as they must be without fire

The Grand Jury find the officers of the county alive to their duty They find the Clerk's office under the supervision of the Deputy Clerk [illegible] ordered and made much more convenient [illegible] yet we feel called upon to urge upon the county authorities the necessity of providing as soon as practicable a more safe building in which to keep the records of the county

J P O LOWNSDALE Foreman

The indictments found by them, which have not already been tried, were twenty seven in number against persons in this city for keeping open saloons on Sunday, two [illegible] gambling to be carried on four [illegible] and [illegible] for keeping houses of ill fame [illegible] rape. The names of all the [illegible] occupy more space than we can spare [illegible] interested can examine the docket

Jacob Williams, already convicted of shooting with intent to kill, was yesterday sent to the penitentiary for one year, and fined $100

CITY COUNCIL, met last evening —Petition from Burnap & Williamson to sell liquor [illegible] granted.

Petition of sundry citizens for a street lamp at the corner of Washington and Third streets and also at the corner near the Synagogue of Beth Israel, were granted

Committee on accounts and current expenses reported on the petition of sundry persons asking leave to manufacture turpentine in town In their opinion the city had nothing to do with it

The Chief Engineer reported that two of the new cisterns must have brick walls on account of being built in quicksand and cement would not adhere to the soil Committee on fire and water were instructed to have it done

The President, in pursuance of a resolution of last meeting, reported contract entered into with the Gas Company for 12 months Report adopted

Resolution instructing the committee on fire and water to advertise for bids for grading the public square, passed

Ordinance appropriating $5,500 for building engine house for Columbians No 3, was read 1st and 2d times

Ordinance to purchase lot for Protection No 4 in the Third ward, appropriating $1,000, was read 1st and 2d times.

Communication of Caleb Cushing in relation to fees for acting as attorney for the city in relation to obtaining a patent for the city land claim before the Land Office at Washington was laid on the table

Committee on accounts and current expenses reported favorably on bills of J F Bradley and the Times Office Sundry bills were ordered paid

W B Clark, City Marshal, presented bills for superintending lighting and turning off street lamps for the following sums $56, $60, and $20 also for removing and replacing lamps, $8 referred to Committee on accounts and current expenses

Bill of H W Corbett, paid

Bills of C A Warren, for placing lamps, $8 and $8, paid

A resolution was passed changing the time of convening the Council to 6½ o'clock, p m

GOLD DUST —Messrs Wells, Fargo & Co's, per steamer Wilson G Hunt, brought down seventy nine ninety pounds of dust, and about six hundred pounds came down in private hands — One hundred passengers came down of whom are known to have ninety pounds between them

NONDESCRIPT — Any thing that has not been described"—Webster Such an institution is advertised for exhibition to day and to-morrow in Thompson's building, Washington street, next door to the Times office We haven't seen and consequently can't deprive it of the cognomen which heads this notice "Aunt Peggy, another favorite caught in the same locality," and "also another pet," can be seen at the same time and place

Costiveness Cured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., October 12, 1856.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—Gents. I am hardly able to express my gratitude for the benefit which my daughter has derived from the use of DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS. She had been troubled with what the physicians call the LIVER COMPLAINT; but our doctor failed to give her any permanent relief, although she tried his prescriptions effectually. She had become melancholy, unhappy, and her constitution was much broken down by the use of Mercury. She tried DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and soon began to get better. I am happy to say that she has entirely recovered her health.

Respectfully yours, JAMES COBB.

A Distressing Headache Cured.

CINCINNATI, August 18, 1852.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—I have for many years been troubled with severe attacks of headache, which often reduced me to my bed. My sufferings have been very great, and no one can have any idea of their severity except those who have suffered with the same disease. I took your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, bathed my head with it, and rubbed it in well. I also took, at the same time, one half of a teaspoonful of saleratus dissolved in one-fourth of a tumbler of water. Soon after, I took a second dose of PANACEA, and it was just the thing for all the world, for it knocked the pain crazy, and I have not had the headache since, for whenever I feel it coming on I take the Panacea, which always checks it at once. Speech of Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland.—An immense audience assembled last night (Oct 9th,) at Cooper Institute to hear a speech by Henry Winter Davis of Maryland, on the war Elliot C Cowden presided Davis was warmly welcomed and proceeded first to speak of the responsibility for the war "The Union as it was and the Constitution as it is," which received his careful attention, and the suspension of the habeas corpus with other measures of the Government, and the object of the war was duly considered Davis said that since the advent of the 'conservatives' to power it had been shown by the facts who were responsible for the origin of the war but he had no hesitation in admitting that the North was responsible for the war, so far as related to the efforts to maintain the nation's honor and integrity He added

"But for the opinions spread broadcast throughout the land, that the beginning of the war against the South would be the beginning of war in the North, bolstering up the hesitating courage of the rebels, leading them to infer that there would be a fire in the rear which would paralyze the power of the Government — but for this organization of Northern men, acting for the South, and leading them to believe that they would shield them in the day of battle, and be a cloud to protect them against their enemies, you would have had no war"

Davis administered a scathing rebuke to the men of questionable loyalty who oppose the President's action concerning the habeas corpus, and asserted that if the Government had erred it was on the side of lenity and against the blood of the free and loyal States, and not against the time honored liberties of the American people Of the objects of the war Davis spoke as follows

"But what is the object of the war, and how shall we attain it? I say the object of the war is to restore the republican Government in the rebellious States—not to bring back the gentlemen that will strike hands with Seymour when they are restored to power, by a long shot—not to reinstate the old coalition of Northern Democrats, now called Copperheads, and Southern traitors to rule us—not for the purpose of restoring to a broken down aristocratic faction both power and the instrument by which to wield it, but, enlightened by the events of the past two years, I would deal with them according to their deserts and unsettle the foundations of the patriarchal institution and build anew over its ruins"

The speaker closed with some pertinent remarks concerning reconstruction, taking the position that there can possibly be no compromise with either secession or slavery, and that only with universal freedom could there be any permanent peace

* * * "Now how should it be ended? By peace? Who will make it? Who will propose terms of compromise after those that have been rejected? Amnesty! They who suggest it wish to paralyze the national arm and leave it defenseless in the face of its enemies Peace—blessed and glorious peace! Men of the United States! that beauty is to be sought across the battle field"

Speaking of the cry for "the Union as it was and the Constitution as it is," Davis said

"Will they wake the dead to life? Will they restore to us undivided Virginia? Will they reinstate the secession authorities in eleven of the United States? Will they insist upon restoring the fugitive Governors of Louisiana and Tennessee?—of deposing Governor Pierpont and reinstating John Letcher? Will they insist on subjecting the martyrs of East Tennessee to the butchers that would destroy them? Will they insist upon undoing every thing that has been accomplished? If they do, then they ought to give their interpretation to the 'Union as it was'"

He expressed himself in favor of the "Constitution as it is," but denied the right of any man to put its meaning into his mouth —N Y. Post.

What England Thinks of American Art of War.—Gen Gilmore's operations against the forts in Charleston harbor—with his Parrott and Dahlgren guns, aboard ship and in battery—attracted very great attention in England, being pronounced by the leading journals as the second revolution in the art of war produced by the American contest The London Times has an interesting article on the subject, and the London Telegraph says

No arsenal is safe, no empire secure, which is too proud to study this lesson, 'a la Dahlgren et Gilmore,'' of what gunpowder and forged steel can be made to effect We do not hesitate to say that the Spithead forts must be reconsidered as to structure and position if Admiral Dahlgren can show our enemies—whoever they may be—how to fire these guns of his from floating batteries

The London Times calls attention to the active development of the iron clad navy of the United States Captain Coles, R N, publishes an important letter pointing out the superiority of our central armaments in turreted iron clads over the broadside arrangement observed in the British iron frigates The captain says the United States "stole a march" on England in the matter of iron vessels for war purposes

Obedience to Law.—Judge Davis, in a charge to the Grand Jury in the Circuit Court for Southern Illinois District, recently laid down some wholesome doctrine, well adapted to all parts of the country We take the following from his charge

Obedience to law means more than a determination not to make open resistance A hearty acquiescence in the law until it is repealed, or judicially declared of no effect, is required, alike, by a common patriotism and common interest We seek to establish the supremacy of the Government, and to compel the unqualified submission of the rebels to the laws How can we ask them to submit if we do not ourselves render a willing obedience? We may, and will differ in any great war, on the right manner of conducting it, and the wisdom of the policy pursued, but no man, who is not a traitor at heart will ever suffer that difference to lead him to counsel resistance"

An Enemy's Gift.—When the Crusaders under King Richard, of England, defeated the Saracens, the Sultan seeing his troops fly asked what was the number of the Christians who were making all this slaughter? He was told that it was only King Richard and his men, and that they were all afoot

"Then,' said the Sultan, 'God forbid that such a noble fellow as King Richard should march on foot' and sent him a noble charger

The messenger took it, and said

"Sir the Sultan sends you this charger, in order that you may not be on foot"

The king was cunning as his enemy, and ordered one of his squires to mount the horse, in order to try him The squire did so but the animal was fiery, and he could not hold him he set off at full speed to the Sultan's pavilion The Sultan expected he had got King Richard, and was not a little mortified to discover his mistake

Cleaned Out.—The Aurora Times contains the following significant item

A gentleman writing to us from Reese river says 'I am cleaned out' cleaner than a shot gun I have been sold more than I was in wild cat in Esmeralda When I came here I had some money and I flattered myself that I understood something about wild cat speculations and I thought I would start in and do something in the way of buying to sell again but alas! in less than a week after I came to camp I found myself out of money and in more wild cat claims than you ever heard of and I have found out to my satisfaction that there are men here that can beat the Aurora wild cat speculators and give them five in the game My name is Haines hereafter'

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, a host of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the [illegible] array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of curing only aggravate disease and leave the [illegible] in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN

CITIZENS

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. [illegible]

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general through distrust of their ingredients and effects I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson of this city because I was prejudiced against them for many years under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

J NEWTON BROWN

PHILADELPHIA J[illegible]

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters put up in quart bottles compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander seed

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes whose life to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters"

Messrs Jones & Evans Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades some of whose names are appended and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case I am and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach Life could not last under these circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street advised me as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it getting better Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months for gentlemen I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone restored to health
